

Resources

Select a wide and rich range of resources that will help history come to life. Identify ways to help learners look for differing perspectives and biases.

Understand

Use the big ideas and what you know about your ākonga to focus on learning that is essential and enduring.

Whānau

Decide how you will draw on knowledge from whānau, community, iwi, and hapū.

Develop a theme or topic that will broaden and deepen understanding of the big ideas.

Ākonga

Support ākonga by discovering what they already know and can do. Use that information to help get them ready for the next step.

Focus on supporting ākonga to have strategies to think critically about the past.
